Our Story

It all started just eight years ago when we bought Zaca Mesa Ranch, 1500 acres of oak-covered mesas and rolling hills overlooking the beautiful Santa Ynez Valley. Part of a Spanish land grant, cattle has been the only way of life for over 100 years. The land had, however, other gifts to offer; perfect soils and climate for premium varietal grapes, at an elevation of 1500 feet to catch sun and cool ocean breezes. Our family and a dozen friends joined in the planting of 220 acres of grapes and the building of a small winery. Fine wines have now added a new dimension to the history of Zaca Mesa. All vineyards, winery and 1980 wine releases are described on the reverse side.
